TO BE COMPLETED BY FUNERAL DIRECTOR

TO BE COMPLETED BY PHYSICIAN: MEDICAL CERTIFICATION

BALTIMORE, MARYLAND 21203-3146

DIVISION OF VITAL RECORDS, P.O. BOX 13146,

TO THE HOSPITAL OR ATTENDING PHYSICIAN: The law requires that the death certificate be executed within 24 hours after death. Page 6 may be retained by the hospital or attending physician.

TO THE FUNERAL DIRECTOR: After this certificate has been signed by the attending physician and completely filled in by the funeral director, page 5 should be detached for use as the burial-transit permit. Pages 1, 2, 3 should be filed within 72 hours after death with the State Dept. of Health and Mental Hygiene prior to burial, cremation, or removal.

IMPORTANT: If item 28 is marked, or item 23 shows any injury, or other traumatic event, the medical examiner must be notified at once.

1. The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. It emphasizes that this is essential for ensuring the integrity of the financial system and for providing a clear audit trail.

2. The second part of the document outlines the specific procedures for recording transactions. It details the steps involved in entering data into the system, from initial entry to final verification.

3. The third part of the document addresses the issue of data security. It discusses the various measures that should be taken to protect sensitive information from unauthorized access and loss.

4. The fourth part of the document provides a summary of the key points discussed in the previous sections. It reiterates the importance of accuracy, security, and proper record-keeping.

5. The final part of the document contains a list of references and a bibliography. It includes citations to various sources of information used in the preparation of the document.

TO BE COMPLETED BY PHYSICIAN: MEDICAL CERTIFICATION

DHMH-16 Rev 1/89

1. The first part of the report is a general introduction to the subject of the study. It discusses the importance of the problem and the objectives of the research. It also mentions the scope of the study and the methods used.

2. The second part of the report is a detailed description of the experimental setup. It includes a list of the equipment used, the procedures followed, and the data collected. This part is essential for understanding the results of the study.

3. The third part of the report is a discussion of the results. It compares the findings with previous work in the field and discusses the implications of the results. It also mentions any limitations of the study and suggests areas for further research.

4. The fourth part of the report is a conclusion. It summarizes the main findings of the study and states the overall conclusions. It also mentions any recommendations for future work.

5. The fifth part of the report is a list of references. It includes all the sources used in the study, such as books, articles, and other documents. This list is important for verifying the accuracy of the information used in the study.

6. The sixth part of the report is a list of appendices. It includes any additional information that is relevant to the study, such as raw data, calculations, and other supporting materials. This part is useful for providing more detail about the study and for allowing others to reproduce the results.

7. The seventh part of the report is a list of figures. It includes any diagrams, graphs, or other visual representations of the data. These figures are important for illustrating the results of the study and for making the report more readable.

8. The eighth part of the report is a list of tables. It includes any tables of data or other information that are presented in the report. These tables are important for providing a clear and concise summary of the results of the study.

9. The ninth part of the report is a list of footnotes. It includes any additional information that is not included in the main text of the report, such as corrections or clarifications. This part is useful for providing more detail about the study and for allowing others to reproduce the results.

10. The tenth part of the report is a list of acknowledgments. It includes any thanks or appreciation for the help and support of others in the study. This part is important for recognizing the contributions of others and for providing a more complete picture of the study.
